Second Call for Papers

The purpose of the Pacific Northwest Fish Culture Conference is to provide hatchery workers with an informal forum to present information related to their work, the art and science of fish culture. This year there will again be a poster session. Please submit any ideas for topics and presenters to the NW FCC at P.O. Box 2599, Olympia, WA 98507-2599 or via email at nwfcc2002@dfw.wa.gov. Submissions for consideration are due by September 16, 2002. Final submissions must be submitted via an email attachment by October 16, 2002. Conference proceedings will be available at the meeting on compact disks. Papers should include a brief abstract using the example provided below.
